

MISSION STATEMENT

At Future Men, we desire to be faithful stewards of our students in working with them in three main areas:
Accomplishing academic goals set by the student and their parents, Work on behavioral and spiritual issues which directly affect every area of our lives, and Provide trade training in order to equip the students with realistic skills in order to be affective men in the workforce.